

One Way System, Guilty

Long time ago -- remember our deal? Not just friends but family
Bare-face lies both sides of the fence, all you have to do is believe in me
To front the sounds in the public eye was your sense of the security
Now you're gone we justify yor lie, ain't that the way it's meant to be?

Guilty you said we're guilty. We ain't the guilty, you are the guilty.
Guilty. You were the guilty, get the right story before you accuse me.
Guilty you said we're guilty. We ain't the guilty, you are the guilty.
Guilty. You were the guilty, get the right story before you accuse me.

Your visionary guides the path we took, to the places that were right for you
Ties have to be broke, and bullshit dried up. Work it out, that will never do
Crawls back again to agree in vain, out trust and friendship took the strain
To all the people who you think they know -- we ain't about to lie down

Guilty you said we're guilty. We ain't the guilty, you are the guilty.
Guilty. You were the guilty, get the right story before you accuse me.
Guilty you said we're guilty. We ain't the guilty, you are the guilty.
Guilty. You were the guilty, get the right story before you accuse me.

Here today, we'll be here tomorrow -- yes that's something you can count on
Keep on answering to the lack of truth, that is always thrown back by you
Ain't gonna stop us- we have our plan -- our way or no fucking way
With all that said, just this to say -- who's guilty, us, you or they?

Guilty you said we're guilty. We ain't the guilty, you are the guilty.
Guilty. You were the guilty, get the right story before you accuse me.
Guilty you said we're guilty. We ain't the guilty, you are the guilty.
Guilty. You were the guilty, get the right story before you accuse me.
