

Onlinedrawing, As Much To Myself As You

It's okay to not wanna go
It's okay if you've got to
It's okay to be missing me
It's okay not to
There are things that we can never give
There are things that we never can't

As much to myself as to you
As much a list of questions as
A list of what to do
If no one believes it, it's true
As much to myself as to you
To you

The Gifts and The Name are a blade
We're not made to be the same, but
We're all ashamed to be made
It's so unbelievable that we can never believe
All these things that we wanna kill
All these things that we wanna save
There are things that we can never give
There are things that we never can't

As much to myself as to you
As much a list of questions as
A list of what to do
If no one believes it, it's true
As much to myself as to you
To you
