

Onelinedrawing, Better Than This

I'm thinking over it
I think too much
It hinders my spirit, there's never enough

Shell-game sleight of hand
To wish for something more Honest husbands, cheating wives, generous buyers, greedy stores

I'll get through it, I'll get through it I'll say it ten times over
I'll get through it, I'll get through it
I'm better than this Better than this
Better than this

That's what anchors me
(I mean it weighs me down)
Can't give thanks to fear Can't say no to crowds.

Guess I'll just play dumb (Couldn't be too hard) Peaceful people, violent guns.
Sober drivers, drunken cars.

I'll get through it, I'll get through it
I'll say it ten times over
I'll get through it, I'll get through it

I'm better than this
I'm better than this
I'm better than this
I'm better than this
I'm better than this
Better than this
Better than nothing

I'm better than nothing,
nothing is better,
I'm better than nothing,
and nothing is better than this better than nothing, nothing is better
better than nothing, nothing is better than this

Better than nothing, and nothing is better better than nothing, and nothing is better than this
than this...
