

Onelinedrawing, Sept00

there are places i'll remember all my life though some have changed some forever, not for better some are gone and some remain all these places have their moments with lovers and friends i still can recall some are dead and some are living in my life i've lived them all but of all these friends and lovers there is no one compares with you and these memories lose their meaning when i think of love as something new though i know that i'll never lose affection for people and things that came before i know i'll often stop and think about them in my life i'll love you more when i get older, losing my hair many years from now will you still be sending me valentines birthday greetings and bottles of wine? when i come home at quarter to three would you lock the door? will you still need me, will you still feed me when i'm 64?
