

OneRepublic, Somebody To Love

never could image
the way the story happened you with someone new I used to be your focus
now you don't even notice
when I leave the room

you weren't even try making me jealous
but you can't help it
you can't help it

and it kills me to know that you found
somebody to love

tell me how I can go on without
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love

they say that loves come easy whenever it comes easy
I see it on your face
I don't want you to be lonely but alright now I am the only one who feels this way

I ain't even trying to make you miss me make you miss me
I know we're history

somebody to love
somebody to love

tell me how I can go on without
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love

tell me how I can go on without
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love
somebody to love
