

OneRepublic, Start Again (ft. Logic) can't i just turn back the clock?

forgive my sins
I just wanna roll mu sleeves up
and start again
I know that I messed it up
time and time again
I just wanna roll my sleeves up
and start again

I was switching up the lanes stepping out the frame I;m in I was pulling on the reigns sick off all the same happening I swear I was liking at disaster mixed with a bottle of gin and just because iu come home after doesn't mean you'll take me in you see my worlds is spinning like there's nothing to know you see my worlds is feeling like it just might explode and yes, I know it's hard to take it backwards from my mind I need to get a ride need to see some light

can't i just turn back the clock?
forgive my sins
I just wanna roll mu sleeves up
and start again
I know that I messed it up
time and time again
I just wanna roll my sleeves up
and start again

felling like maybe I'm in unappreciated like my presence in your life has been alleviated I feel like everything I've done before is different now but I can see clearer than ever from a distance now every day I do, it, I been goin' through it you gave me the world, so I feel I owed you I've been looking through the mirror and that's the old you I'm get It right now, don't know how but I promise that we're gonna make it somehow I'm all in it's from the heart again open up your mind and maybe we could start again can't i just turn back the clock?

forgive my sins
I just wanna roll mu sleeves up
and start again
I know that I messed it up
time and time again
and start again

and yes I know it's hard to take backwards from my mind I need to get ride
need to see some light
can't I just turn back the clock
forgive my sins
and star t again
