

Onesidezero, Instead Laugh (Demo)

OneSideZero

Instead Laugh

suicide, something's missing

I'm bound, in flesh, it cut once all his life, he was waiting control, faith left envy but all her life, she was searching

so real, followed her own suicide, never showed me

all that was true, for me

I'm not like you...

but open your eyes

I drank from your mind

its tastes so divine

oh...all that we knew, it seems so untrue

I faced your life, come give me a try soon you'll know, when it's over

suicide, its me you swallow

all that was true for me

I'm not like you

but open your eyes

I drank from your mind

I phased your life, come give me a try all her life, she was searching

something's missing
