

Onesidezero, Suicide

instead laugh
Suicide
but somethings missing I'm bound in flesh it cut once but all his life he was waiting control faith left envy but all her life
she was searching
so real
followed her own
it never showed me
all that was true 4 me
I'm not like you
but open your eyes
I drank form your mind
It tastes so divine
All that we knew it seems so untrue
I faced your life come give me a try Soon you'll know when its over
so real
followed her own
its me u swallow
all that was true 4 me
I'm not like you
but open your eyes
I drank form your mind
it tastes so divine
all that we knew it seems so untrue
I faced your life come give me a try
