

Onesidezero, Tapwater

throw your life away, and everything will come to you if you still believe, in all the things you've tried to do when somethings facing your life well I just can't give in

I've never seen it, I can't win
oh lover, you were wrong

SUBMISSION

when something changes you won't know

I've always crossed it out when everythings such a lie well
oh lover, you were wrong

chorus:

throw your life away, it will come back in the end if you still believe, but you wish not to pretend
when somethings facing your life well I just won't give in

I've never seen it, I can't win

won't fall, won't fall for it wanted me to admit, telling me I should submit won't fall, won't fall for it wanted me to admit, I never will submit to this
