

Onesidezero, Tapwater

throw your life away, and everything will come to you if you still believe, in all the things you've tried to do when somethings facing your life well

I just can't give in

I've never seen it, I can't win

oh lover, you were wrong

SUBMISSION

when something changes you won't know

I've always crossed it out when everythings such a lie well

oh lover, you were wrong

chorus:

throw your life away, and everything will come to you

throw your life away, it will come back in the end if you still believe, but you wish not to pretend

when somethings facing your life well

I just won't give in

I've never seen it, I can't win

oh lover, you were wrong

(chorus)

won't fall, won't fall for it wanted me to admit, telling me I should submit

won't fall, won't fall for it wanted me to admit, I never will submit to this

LIAR.....submission

(chorus)
