

Oomph!, Sick Song

Don't tell me you could read my mind - as you see my strain

Why do you leave when I'm down on the floor?

Just to beg you for some more

I tell you there is more behind - I'm not this insane

Though you believe, You don't know me for sure

There's so much to explore

Don't tell me it's up!

Don't tell me it's up!

You don't know that it's fun to cry - 'cause you'll never feel

The bliss inside when it cuts my core - come and tag my sore

Don't tell me it's up!

Don't tell me it's up!

You don't know that it's fun to cry - 'cause you'll never feel

The bliss inside when you cut my heart - oh I still want some more

Don't tell me it's up!

Don't tell me it's up!

(Don't tell me it's up!)

Say "lay down"; If I go down, I'll tell ya, we go down together

I scream "listen"; if you go down, I promise you'll go down alone

Let's go!

Ready or not - don't stop if I take it or not

(so what!)

Ready or not - don't stop if I take it or not

(so what!)

Stake me and rape me - take me to the top

Love me until - (don't stop)

Hit me and sit me and then let me drop - Hate me alive

(so what!)

(so what!)

(so what!)

Yeah!!
