

Open Hand, Newspeak

They will grab you with their open hands,
Reaching for a chance to expand their lies,
Keep your head down,
Mind yourself,
Make sure that you keep all your thoughts inside.
They speak their truth out telling lies,
Forcing us all down until we see their ways,
The stations on, let's prepare to operate,
Let's watch the world go up in flames.

Turn on ...Burn out.
Turned on ... Burned out.

Here they come,
They're rushing in now,
Here to save the day.
I gave them my precise location.
I hope they're on the way.

Why should I go on?
