

Optimus Rhyme, Just Forget It

Consisto metronoid
Avoid fluctuations in the BPMs we employ if the tempo don't go, I'm annoyed Check the batteries
we need beats that are fatter these days Automatic anatomy regulates I'd rather be back at the Autobeat academy Scattering bytes about those we shouldn't name But hey, here we are, translating binary into libraries of bizarre scribbled patterns Don't matter if I try very hard
My mind scatters
I focus on these sixteen bars
I try to keep it close, but no, my clock speed's off there's no way I can stop these thoughts cause I'm hard-coded I got this verse don't recall when i wrote it I downloaded every help file I could grab but these words still piled up pad after pad

Hey sorry that I didn't warn you but if I did would it be different
I spend way too much time second guessing
stressing focused on what's next instead of today
too many thoughts and too many scars
man think about it there's no way that I can stay

Just forget it (x3)

I spot the ex-wife in my dreams sometimes
She says, "Wheelie, you never call me, why?
I try email and you never reply."
It always seems like she's doing alright
But in real life I got dumped for a junkie
It kinda sucked but I guess he gave her something I never did: It was a needle and an exit
When she finally left it was far from unexpected Bottom line people change all the time
It's strange but today man you know I don't mind
In fact I was stoked by the time that I packed Like I woke from a bad dream never looking back And honestly I wasn't innocent in this I should'a been the one to say you wanna finish this I couldn't; she could. Didn't argue or shout
Into the sunset, happy that I'm out

Hey sorry that I didn't warn you
but if I did would it be different
I spend way too much time second guessing
stressing focused on what's next instead of today
too many thoughts and too many scars
man think about it there's no way that I can stay
With your stuff around me, memories are pounding down
See, I need you to go away

I'm a terrible person it's true
I drove one drummer out the band man I guess I'm too rude Ya out there Thundercracker? Well fuck you!
Nah, I'm only joking man
Here's the olive branch
While I'm at shit might as well make a list
Now lets see I threw a lot of eggs as a kid
And I picked a few legs off some bugs and stuff
And just last night I left the toilet seat up
