

Opus Atlantica, Falling Angel

Nightmare comes and shadows burning
Death and darkness you will cry
Gaze into my magic crystal
Sacred fire you will die
The falling angel
Oh a crack in the sky
From the altar the king is calling
All his forces to survive
Sacred fire touch of glory
Killing slaying end of time
Gaze into the shallow water
My command until you die
All I see is pure damnation
Holy quest there is no life
