

Opus Atlantica, Sleep with the Devil

Looked inside of a dream
You're holding the key
The dream will set us all free
When we reach for the sun
The old and the young
Rise fall from the sky
So through heaven and hell
We walk with a flame
Burn to see it all end
All the fools sailed away
Our souls will remain
Survive, protect and condemn
In his eyes, I'm trapped in the fire
Paradise, hate will remain
Lonely prisoner with his crazy vice
Don't think twice, just come
Sleep with the devil tonight
Sleep with the devil tonight
There's a dark desert land, a strange kind of man
The wizard schemes and he screams
He says come you will see, just follow me
A replica of the condemned
