

Opus III, Hand In Hand (Looking For Sweet Inspiration)

i've been searching for the meaning what makes you so full of grace but i'm looking for sweet inspiration in the eyes of a strangers face

i walk hand in hand in hand in hand

true visions of perfection beyond what is wrong and what is right i will find my sweet inspiration and summon the day from the night in hand in hand
