

Orange 9mm, Fire In The Hole

You think you know me
You'd bet your life you do
I beg to differ
No matter what your view
There's fire in the hole
I've gotta let you know
Like fire in the hole,
I got to and i want to
Blow you down,
Nowhere to hide,
Don't cry now
There's fire in the hole
I've gotta let you know
There's fire in the hole
Just goes to show you
No matter what you do
I can see right through your eyes
I despise all the things you said were lies
Was I supposed to fold?
Why should I let you go?
Like fire in the hole
I got to and I want to blow...
You'll never live it down
