

Orange 9mm, Muted

Life's a bitch and then you're gone
You can pray all day and sing a song
Stay awake all night for a man to give the answers to you
Save yourself then save us all
Blame our ways and burn our souls
You're lucky enough for a man to give the answers to you
Some people like me don't know, I don't know where to turn Say I'm evil say I'm worthy of hell
Say I'm just a fool with a story to tell
I kinda know what you're thinking but I don't really care
You've got your ideas I'm sure you're welcome to share
Some people like me don't know,
I don't know where to turn so won't you get it straight now?
I don't want your help now
Even if I'm going down
F**k you, I don't need it
