

Orange Blue, Gotta Be

You will always hide emotions
But you'll never hide your face
To someone who don't look like me
You believe in love and in mermaids

Gotta be free if you wanna be
When your eyes don't say what they see
You gotta be cool, be a winner
Be a fool, be a liar, be a sinner
You got to be a foreigner

You won't sell a smile for money
Yet you wear a million inside
And I'm writing my life's diary
In your mind, your memory of pride

You gotta be free if you wanna be
When your eyes don't say what they see
You gotta be cool, be a winner
Be a fool, be a sinner, be a liar
You got to be a foreigner

Yeah you gotta be free if you wanna be
When your eyes don't say what they seem
Gotta be cool, be a winner
Be a fool, be a sinner, be a liar
You got to be a foreigner

I remember living colors
There's no red heaven in my eyes
Jungle feeling, deep blue nothing
No face to no face to no face, no face

You gotta be free if you wanna be
When your eyes don't say what they see
You gotta be cool, be a winner
Be a fool, be a sinner, be a liar
You got to be a foreigner

You gotta be free if you wanna be
When your eyes don't say what they see
You gotta gotta gotta be yeah yeah yeah
You gotta be yeah yeah yeah

You gotta be free
You got to be a foreigner
