

Orange Blue, She's Got that Light

Sometimes when she looks up
it seems as if she's by herself.
Devil whispers in my ear,
I tried in vain to reach her world.

There are many silent words,
raising heads while the tide still sounds.
And there are many weeping eyes
hand in hand while the wind still pounds.
But the cycle never ends,
the curtain falls burying my tears.
Though the carpet of gold seemed to be quite near.

She's got that light around her eyes.
A gleaming star surrounds her mind.
She's got that smile imbued with soul.
I need her hand, 'cause she's my home.

She's got that light around her eyes.
A gleaming star surrounds her mind.
She's got that smile imbued with soul.
I need your hand, 'cause your my home.

Wish you could hear the sound of my trembling faceless thoughts.
Wish I could stop the fading of my dream
with honest words.
The youth of your voice
feels like the touch of fallin' snow.
Sitting in the dark,
hoping that future will grow.

She's got that light...

I know for sure I'll listen to your song.
I wouldn't leave you in time of glacial storm.
Tell me where are you coming from ?
You're my own true love in a foreign home.
