

Orange, No Rest For The Weekend

You sent me there with every chance to exceed
The situations gulty is what the jury had to plead
Seems no ones listening to you
Cus you know that
Once a kid now your always a child
Pimpin get you money so you can be self styled
The time and place right here is now!

I wanna go where theres no rest for the weekend
Where everydayis mine and not yours again
Seems all my life ive been working for the weekend
Cus so far life is unexplored again

Now i look back maybe it wasnt all that bad
At the time i never knew
You was all i had
Stuck in the garage days like you
And no one said to
Dont spit
Dont slack
Dont pout
Dont slouch
Dont nag
Dont scream
Dont shout
The time and place right here is now!

I wanna go where theres no rest for the weekend
Where everyday is mine and not yours again
Seems all my life ive been working for the weekend
Cus so far iam getting bored again

Chorus x 2

Booty!
