Orange, No Rest For The Weekend

You sent me there with every chance to exceed The situations gulity is what the jury had to plead Seems no ones listening to you Cus you know that Once a kid now your always a child Pimpin get you money so you can be self styled The time and place right here is now!

I wanna go where theres no rest for the weekend Where everydayis mine and not yours again Seems all my life ive been working for the weekend Cus so far life is unexplored again

Now i look back maybe it wasnt all that bad
At the time i never knew
You was all i had
Stuck in the garage days like you
And no one said to
Dont spit
Dont slack
Dont pout
Dont slouch
Dont nag
Dont scream
Dont shout
The time and place right here is now!

I wanna go where theres no rest for the weekend Where everyday is mine and not yours again Seems all my life ive been working for the weekend Cus so far iam getting bored again

Chorus x 2

Booty!
