

Oratorio, Shine The Light

Prophecies coming true
No longer light from the moon
Stars are falling from the sky
You can see it with your own eyes
The day of the Lord is near

The Devil roars in anger
Fight back with the power of Father
Zombies n dwarfs are fairy tales
Satan is as real as it gets Better raise your sword!

Burning sun descends and the only nightwish is to see the power of our God

You feel the hatred of the world?
That is the angel of death
C'mon, too blind to see!?
Smell the air you breath
You're the son of King of Kings

The red dragon is perfidious
It wants to swallow your soul
There is only one above all and he is Jesus Christ

It's not the time to fall asleep
I pray everyday
Let the world to know your name is only way to be saved!

Burning sun descends and the only nightwish is to see the power of our God

Shine the light
Like the stars in the sky
Shine the light
The light that comes from Son of God!
