

Oratory, Living Wisdom

Looking for...a new sign unknown keeping our hopes from the world asking for...answers all along time remains in (the) time to come

And now! We came so far and for us this is just a question of war

I am urging to find more from the lost land I adore I am chosen to go there from ancient times and everywhere

Looking for...other coloured lands finding how the world expands asking...what we might find

Sure it will be on
