

Orchestral Manoeuvres In The Dark, Goddess Of

(She's okay)
(She's okay)
(hey)
(She's okay)
(She's okay)
(Hey)

Goddess of love
Goddess of love
She never slows down
And she can't get enough
The Goddess of love
The Goddess of love
She's holding her heart to the stars above

She can't afford dreams
And her clothes are old
She can't afford hope
Wouldn't be so bold
But she's holding his heart
And she won't let go again

She's a femme fatal
Well that's what they say
But she knows he couldn't love her
Any other way
Cause she's holding him now
And she won't let go again
Yes, she's holding him now
And she won't let go again

Goddess of love
Goddess of love
She never slows down
The Goddess of love
The Goddess of love
She's holding her heart to the stars above

She never slows down
And she doesn't play straight
Just cruising around in her own sweet way
But she's taking her time
And he's gonna get fooled again
She learned about life
Til she wished shew were dead
So she treats that guy like a hole in the head
Can you see him now
He'll never get lucky again

Goddess of love
Goddess of love
She never slows down
The Goddess of love
The Goddess of love

The Goddess of love (x6)
Heart and soul

She's the Goddess of love as she covers the ground
She looks just great and she never slows down

And she's holding his heart and she won't let go again
Yes, she's holding his heart and she won't let go again
Oh, she's holding his heart and she won't let go again
