

Ordo Equilibrio, Let's Celebrate the Exploration of Every voluntary sexual experience, is ultimately more positive and conferring, when utilized as a sexual encounter, regardless of the outcome, then any intense and compelling sexual fantasy, never utilized

I believe masturbation to be truly gratifying, and a natural expression of human sexuality And loving yourself, both literally and physically, is truly the initial stage, of any true and unconditional love

Let's celebrate,
the exploration of the human body Let's celebrate,
the exploration of the human mind, and the excitement that is possible to disclose, from employing ones true and profound desires

What is truly a greater stimuli, than the thriving sexuality of human imagination Acknowledge and embrace your true sexual nature, as a good orgasm,
certainly confers an equal measure of energy, to any variety of ritual sacrifice
