

Ordo Rosarius Equilibrio, Sheep For A Lifetime, C

Foresee the traitors of the future embrace the changes of today
Fulfill the secrets of tomorrow to change the outcome, of yesterday
We forgive the world for nothing as we commemorate each day
But in the sunrise of tomorrow today will fall and fade away
Should we be sheep who live forever should we be lions for one day
That is the question of tomorrow that is the answer of today

Behold the traitors of tomorrow deceive the comrades of today
Conceive the treason of the future dressed in the murder of yesterday
Someday the traitors will be numbered as we unveil the light of day
But in the sunrise of tomorrow today will fall and fade away
Should we be sheep who live forever should we be lions for one day
That is the question of tomorrow that is the answer of today
