

Orgy Complex, New Age Love Song

Hey, girl I think you should know
You've got that something that you really should show
You're so fine
That in the night
You won't be there
But you make me feel alright

CHORUS:

Cuz when I'm jacking off I think of you
And all the times that we've been through
Yeah baby in my heart there's a picture of you
Photoshopped on a chick in the nude

Now wait up girl
Don't run away
You're not the only one
That thinks that I am gay
You're irresistible
Led me astray
And I don't want this feeling to go away

CHORUS

Baby, you know I'll never do you no wrong
Cuz when I'm with you
All I wanna do is rub one out

And I promise you, girl
You'll always be the one
That gets me off

Jackin' off
I think of you
You'll always be the one
That gets me through

Jackin' off
I think of you
I'll never need porn again
That's true

CHORUS (x2)
