

Orgy, Serena

THIS IS NOT AN ORGY SONG!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

So what, life's rough
You should get over yourself
Like everyone else
And enjoy
The girls and the boys
And everything in between
Serena, in an effort to avoid
The things that annoy you
You hide - far, far away
And life just passes you by

Serena x1

Are you gonna give up
Are you gonna give out
Ain't that a shame
You've got no one to blame
But your conscience
It doesn't make sense
I know that only too well
So tell me
Did it happen one day
When the day that you faced wasn't happening
It just didn't bring
Anything more, anything more than despair

Serena x2

Do you remember, morning would come
And just like a child filled with the sun
And the hours never seemed long
Where have those days gone?
Beyond us.....
Or so you would believe
But I can't agree, those illusions
Will you never get through them
And find the diamond
Find the diamond inside

Serena x3
