

Origa, Serenata

My wings
Like doves
Need to feel the wind
And then, love says
I must stay behind

Love fearless, tears needless...
Love fearless, tears needless...
Tell me now, do I still have your heart
Love fearless, tears needless...
Love fearless, tears needless...
Tell me, my heart won't let me wait!

I made my life, wishing you would come along
Your broken wings, my love, they cannot fly
So, here I am, leaving my dreams
And self for last
Love and freedom cannot be, as one...
