

Orion's Reign, Amidst The Battle

Verse:

Born in times so hard and hostile, my hand could not stay empty
Had to live inside a world of evil man and beast
Each day a battle fierce, strong hand filled with steel
With every wound my fire grew to burn high in the mist

Bridge:

Sing your battle songs
And then tarry not
Death is waiting us
Strike when the iron is hot

Hopes into my past
Free I will be at last
Under those ancient skies
Steel will speak no lies

Chorus:

A man stands against fate the power in his hands
The power to wield his sword inside the unknown lands
Whatever comes my way will meet two flaming eyes
I bring the fire, I bring the light, I kill your lies

And when death comes close, raise eyes and look at his
Allow your eyes to be your sword and crush his bones and skull
The magic union of, life and death in your mind
Will break the bonds of mortal need, your sword shall lead the blind!

Verse:

You know that if you cease to fight you will cease to survive
Fighting always to be the best wielder of steel
Lived the life with all detail, though the arrows flew around
In danger..s hands I would stand fast and heavy fight still deal

Bridge:

Chorus:
