Orlando, Memories Of You

Memories of you takes me back in time In my lovely heart feeling this lonely night Memories of you are a part of me Tell me when you're back losing a game to me

How can I carry on. (carry on, carry on) Seems so far away (seems so far away) Now surrender me (now surrender me)

And this love never ends

Memories of you, one of us is crying In this lonely bed feeling this lonely mind Memories of you, waiting for a call from you Tell me when you're back losing a game to me
