

Orquesta Del Desierto, El Diablo Un Patrono

Woke up this morning, baby
Feeling mighty sick
Been much too long together
Since we took a trip
Let's get out of this space
Leave this place behind

Vaporize, say, "Bye bye"
Won't you come along?

You should know what to do

Ten thousand miles an hour
We ride down the road
low fi mothers in their hi-fi clothes
No destination, recreation way up there

Have no fear, say, "Bye bye"
Would you come along?

You should know what to do
("Sho-nuff will")

Relentless gravity
So helpless in our smiles
Eye to eye, say, "Bye bye"
You should know to come along

You should know what to do
("Sho-nuff will")
