

Orquesta Del Desierto, Life Without Color

Red was just her dream
Then came all the green
Everyone's hand's in the rainbow
Yea, yea, yea, yea
Sun yellow and bright
Eyes bleached into white
Everyone's stares at the rainbow
Yea, yea, yea, yea

Colors and colors all run together
And we walk alone

When she turned to gray
Blue my mind away
Everyone's lost in the rainbow
Yea, yea, yea, yea
Once you fade into black
There's no turning back
You can't return to the rainbow
Yea, yea, yea, yea

Colors all run together
And we walk alone

Red was just her dream
Then came all the green
Everyone's stares at the rainbow
Yea, yea, yea, yea

Colors and colors all run together
And we walk alone
