

Os101, Heatseekers

Infection disease has spread across the land.
The sky has grown darker mans time is at hand.
A warrant has been issued for the life of all mankind.
So here we are to do battle and die.
Mother Mary queen of all souls.
The cards have been dealt the world lies alone.
You have opened your heart and filled us with love
Still we chose to deny and now it comes down to this.
Heatseekers the chosen seekers of truth.
We will fight on
We will defend the law of the land.
Heatseekers the chosen seekers of truth.
We will fight on
We will defend the law of the land.
