

Oscar Brand, Roosevelt The Cry

Hear the call throughout the land
Come and proudly take your stand
Now uphold your chieftain's hand
Roosevelt the cry!

Blow the bugle, beat the drum
From the north and south they come
From the east and west they come
Roosevelt the cry!

Lincoln's name, McKinley's too,
They traduced and would anew
Trust them? I will not&mdash;will you?
Roosevelt the cry!

Let the Democrat named Hill
All his evil venom spill
Yet he'll taste a bitter pill
Roosevelt the cry!

History shall write his name
On the immortal scroll of fame
They shall all his deeds proclaim
Roosevelt the cry!

Roosevelt, the soldier true
Roosevelt, the statesman too
Sane for me and safe for you
Roosevelt the cry!
