

Oskar Cymś, All I Have (EMO)

Walking away
Closer to sober
Something is telling me
We can't be reached anymore
I'm falling apart
But I know that I need you
I need you now

It hit me like a train
When nothing felt the same
Footprints in the waves
I can feel it that it's over
Something's gotta hold
Something's gotta hold

I gave you all I have
I wanna fall in the night
Shoulder to shoulder
I'll carry you, I'll carry you with all that I have

Is there a word I could say?
Was there a chance in your head?
Is there a way to remind you
I gave you, I gave you all that I have

I'm running a maze
Further from home now
Something is keeping me
Following empty words
Is there light in the dark?
'Cause I know that I need you
I need you now

It hit me like a train
When nothing felt the same
Footprints in the waves
I can feel it that it's over
Something's gotta hold
Something's gotta hold

I gave you all I have
I wanna fall in the night
Shoulder to shoulder
I'll carry you, I'll carry you with all that I have

Is there a word I could say?
Was there a chance in your head?
Is there a way to remind you
I gave you, I gave you all that I have
