

Osker, Back To You

save save your pride if you could separate your fears from your beliefs maybe then you'd see we're no more alone a million others could be if we're alive just by changing then from what are you made of all the things i didn't tell you i never lied what's your connection omission or failure to confide

the plan's to hit with all the force of energy i've saved if she only knew my wrongs things would be going right speak so slow oh oh oh oh how can this be happening sharing air with the enemy i read a fucking joke on a storage room wall robbed more girls than ever meant to more than one's too much of all the things i didn't tell you i never lied

what's your connection omission or failure to confide
the plan's to hit with all the force of energy i've saved

she looked at me and told me that we're only human beings and she explained how we fit perfectly the plan's to hit with all the force of energy i've saved
if she only knew my wrongs things would be going right the plan's to hit with all the force of vanity i've made if she only knew my wrongs things would be going right
