

Osker, Ballad Of A Traitor

thanks for being a fuck.

i hope you drowned in your own vomit.

you really proved yourself to me,

and you really gave me something to remember you by...

i guess i changed a lot through the eyes of a jealous mind...

i won't forget your dumb face.

and to think all this time you were just a fake,

for the sake of humanity kill yourself and that would tide me over fine...
