

Osker, I Cannot

And then I tried what I knew I couldn't do
I got frustrated when I couldn't talk to you
And all these plans well they couldn't fall through
It's disturbing knowing that I'm losing you

I cannot, I cannot
I can't do anything at all
I cannot, I cannot
I can't do anything at all

And then I was who I never though I'd be
And when I spoke I was happy
Someone who was listening
Had so many doubts I
Wether I made it
With no help from you
I succeeded

I cannot, I cannot
I can't do anything at all
I cannot, I cannot
I can't do anything at all

I cannot, I cannot
I can't do anything at all
I cannot, I cannot
I can't do anything at all

And then I was who I never though I'd be
And when I spoke I was happy
Someone who was listening
Had so many doubts I
Wether I made it
With no help from you
I succeeded