

Our Lady Peace, Not Enough

Theres nothing you can say
Nothing you can do
Nothing in between
You know the truth
Nothing left to face
Nothing left to lose
Nothing takes your place

When they say you're not that strong
Well you're not that weak
Its not your fault
When you climb up to your hill
Up to your place
I hope you're well
Theres nothing left to prove
Nothing I won't do
Nothing like the pain
I feel for you
Nothing left to hide
Nothing left to fear
I am always here

What you want
What you lost
What you had
What is gone is over
What you've got
What you love
What you need is real
If it's not enough
Its not enough
Its not enough Im sorry
If it's not enough
Its not enough
