

OUR MIRAGE, Eclipse

Tell me will I be fighting in another life?
cause every day I tell myself another lie
But I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm so far from home

So after all these nights
When I stared into the lights
Of an endless stellar mass
A black hole rises from
The place where I belong,
Leaving nothing but darkness

I lose control but feel a force that pulls so heavily
It's pulling me under
It's almost like I'm suppressed by
suppressed by gravity

Tell me will I be fighting in another life?
cause every day I tell myself another lie?
But I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm so far from home.

And as I sense something,

I fall onto the ground
and realize what could have been Deep inside I feel
this emptiness in me
And now that I'm alone,
So far away from home

I lose control but feel a force that pulls so heavily,
It's pulling me under
It's almost like I'm suppressed by
suppressed by gravity

I've dropped my soul into the abyss
My whole world is darkened in Eclipse in Eclipse!

Tell me will I be fighting in another life?
cause every day I tell myself another lie?
But I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm so far from home.

Is this the time where all my thoughts divide?
Or am I the reason that all the stars collide?

So here I am on my collision course,
I feel responsible, stung with remorse!

Tell me will I be fighting in another life?
Cause every day I tell myself another lie?
But I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!

I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm so far from home.

Tell me will I be fighting in another life?
cause every day I tell myself another lie?
But I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm not okay!
I'm so far from home.

Tell me is this the time
When I lose my mind?
Is there anything Afterall?
I'll be okay!
Is this the time
When all stars collide?
I'll be okay!
I'll be,
I'll be okay!
