

Out Of Your Mouth, The Dream

Hey, do you really know
What you care about?
Do you care if you fade away?
I can relate to losing faith

To losing you, I feel afraid
I see no pain
I'm so ashamed
Till i see your face

I just needed to tell you
I just can't seem to cry
I just know that I see you
I am confused inside

And i wonder why
Do you believe in a dream that you can stay in my mind?
And I wait for the day you say hello, and I'll say goodbye
To the dream(repeated&fades)
