

Outlawz, Girl In Ohio

It's winter in my consciousness
Dew has turned to frost
Some will win, some will lose
Some have won and lost
You can feel the time between us now
Pullin' us apart
If I could get in touch somehow
We can make another start

And in Ohio, there's one place I would go
Back to the arms of a girl I used to know
We'll be ridin' back in style
Gonna be there in awhile
Back in the heart of a girl in Ohio

Walking the sunshine of the day
Slowly turns to night
Whisperin' winds come what may
Birds in homeward flight
Just one way, that you can go
And the sunset is set free
Softly through the shadows to
The place I wanna be

And in Ohio, there's one place I would go
Back to the heart of a girl I used to know
We'll be ridin' back in style

Gonna be there in awhile
Back in the arms of a girl in Ohio

I know you know me better than
To say I lost my pride
When the things that you can see in me
Things that I can't hide
One day ride through the night
It's all it usually takes
See me clear of yesterday
Most of my mistakes

And in Ohio, there's one place I would go
Back to the heart of a girl I used to know
We'll be ridin' back in style
Gonna be there in awhile
Back in the heart of a girl in Ohio
In Ohio, there's one place I would go
Back to the heart of the girl I used to know
We'll be ridin' back in style
Gonna be there in awhile
Back in the heart of a girl in Ohio
