

Outsiders, Let My Soul Fade

spare me an hollow endless life and the joyful endless peace
'cause the answer's not a prize and the punishments can't be with a demon by my side and an angel's care for me I have paid for my guilts
I will own each of my sins
let my soul fade
let it burn
and leave no ashes
let it go
and leave no footprints
cause my life's been
a climbing out of
an abyss
even you can't understand that my birth has been my own death that no aid will be give back and no mistake be redeemed that the dreams die with the sun that the lies will win at last and there can't be a restart in the iron mist of time
'cause, god, I'm too sick of life
let my soul fade
let it burn
and leave no ashes
an abyss
let my soul fade
let it burn
