

Oval Opus, Don't Love Me Anymore

You called me the other night
And told me,
That you needed to talk real bad
So I said alright.
I just sat there and listened to your
Story, the one I've heard so many Times before.
So now you'll tell me that you want me forever,
And you say that you want to be a friend,
So what made you change your mind again?

Don't love me anymore; Save it.
You had a chance, you held my heart,
I should have known it from the start.
Your love is tainted; I'm so frustrated.
You pushed me out the door;
Don't love me anymore.

You cried and asked for my forgiveness.
You said my love is all you'd ever need.
I swallowed my pride and I forgave you,
To only help me find some inner peace.
So now you tell that you need me forever,
And you can't go on being just a friend,
But if we'd try you take my heart again.

Don't love me anymore; Save it.
You had a chance, you held my heart,
I should have known it from the start.
Your love is tainted; I'm so frustrated.
You pushed me out the door;
Don't love me anymore.

I tried to give you some redemption.
I never wanted to hurt at all,
Or turn out this way.
But if you can see where you have taken me,
Then I see it's true...
When the waves crash down,
Crash down on you.

Don't love me anymore; Save it.
You had a chance, you held my heart,
I should have known it from the start.
Your love is tainted; I'm so frustrated.
You pushed me out the door;
Don't love me anymore.
