

Oval Opus, Heaven

The candles lit, the bread is broken
Now we all left, Because the preacher has spoken

But tomorrow will it all be the same,
Will I hesitate to lift up your name
Will I struggle as I go through the fog,
Can I truly be a man of God?

Lord, I want to be faithful, I wanna be strong
I wanna be a man-like warrior that does no wrong
I wanna be like you, I wanna see you

I wanna live on Earth like in Heaven
Cuz there I would walk with you, I would talk with you
I'd never lose sight of you
As I walk through the woods, Pondering what my life is all about
I'm asking God while I sometimes fall to my knees
Cuz I know I let him down

Suddenly I feel his gentle touch, Telling me he's there
He says fear not my child, I'll always be there

Lord, I want to be faithful, I wanna be strong
I wanna be a man-like warrior that does no wrong
I wanna be like you, I wanna see you
I wanna live on Earth like in Heaven
Cuz there I would walk with you, I would talk with you
I'd never lose sight of you

Although darkness is all around me
And temptation is in my face
How can I be blind from his mercy
And his everlasting amazing grace

Lord, I want to be faithful, I wanna be strong
I wanna be a man-like warrior that does no wrong
I wanna be like you, I wanna see you
I wanna live on Earth like in Heaven
Cuz there I would walk with you, I would talk with you
I'd never lose sight of you
