

Over It, 80's Movie Antihero

well i woke up this morning as if it had been the first time in weeks that i had seen you face, so let lunch be on me we could go downtown, maybe even hand in hand maybe its just all inside my head, because... i've walked a thousand miles in shoes that hardly fit these feet of mine some words may never translate im telling you this 1987 picture frame means more than just my fondest memory so take all you want effervescence in sync with the pulse in my wrist and just maybe i'll be there, maybe i'll even save your day just maybe understanding has been waiting
