

Overdream, Free Dive

Sinking down, all alone in the dark
I'm floating on, falling to ocean's heart.
(Oh) Would you dare ever know what I feel?
I meet the end where everything's to begin

Deep in the blue, it's timeless calm
A peaceful song murmurs of freedom.
Shall I stay evermore?
Silence around alluring to dream on

Far above wings of wind lash the sky
Black clouds hang low and the waves tower high
(But) Underneath perfect stillness reigns
Down here my soul is yet a gem I will find
