

Overkill, Shadow Of A Doubt

Give me your love, give me your money
Give me your soul, let me have it honey
All lined up, paint 'em red
All lay down, praying me dead
Here you go baby, a birthday surprise
Best believe your eyes
Cover them in roses
Cover them in lies
Dress them up in persecution
Best believe your eyes

Nothing you hear, half of what your seeing
Make myself clear, talk about believing
3-5-7 and a bottle of blood
All went down to heaven, hell's full of the good
All over baby, here's a big surprise
Best believe your eyes
Cover them in roses
Cover them in lies
Dress them up in persecution
Best believe your eyes

6-6-6-6-6-6
Your enemies, your demons scream to get out
Beyond the shadow of a doubt

Listen to your spirit scream,
Wring your soul out until it's clean
Well beyond the shadow of a doubt
Kiss your purity goodbye
Squeeze you tight so you won't die
All your demons screaming to get out
Hear the footsteps, feel the breath
Good intentions lead to death
All your enemies are looking out
Well beyond the shadow of a doubt
Well beyond the shadow of a doubt
